Represented

Hosted at Bhojani Hall in collaboration with BSEK and ASPSCA.

Designed to create a fully structured and realistic Grade IX Physics Mock Examination, effectively building both student competence and confidence.

Executed under the leadership of Syed Haider Ali (Chairman, ASPSCA), Dost M. Danish (General Secretary, ASPSCA), and Syed Mir Syed (Principal, Fatimiyah College).

THE COUNTDOWN TO THE BOARD EXAMINATIONS

STEP 1: MOCK EXAMINATIONS

STANDARDISING THE EXPERIENCE:
Providing a board-style environment to bridge the gap between classroom preparation and actual performance.

STEP 2: SEND-UP EXAMINATIONS

REFINING THE STRATEGY:
A critical diagnostic phase allowing students to evaluate their current performance, identify knowledge gaps, and adjust their final study plans.

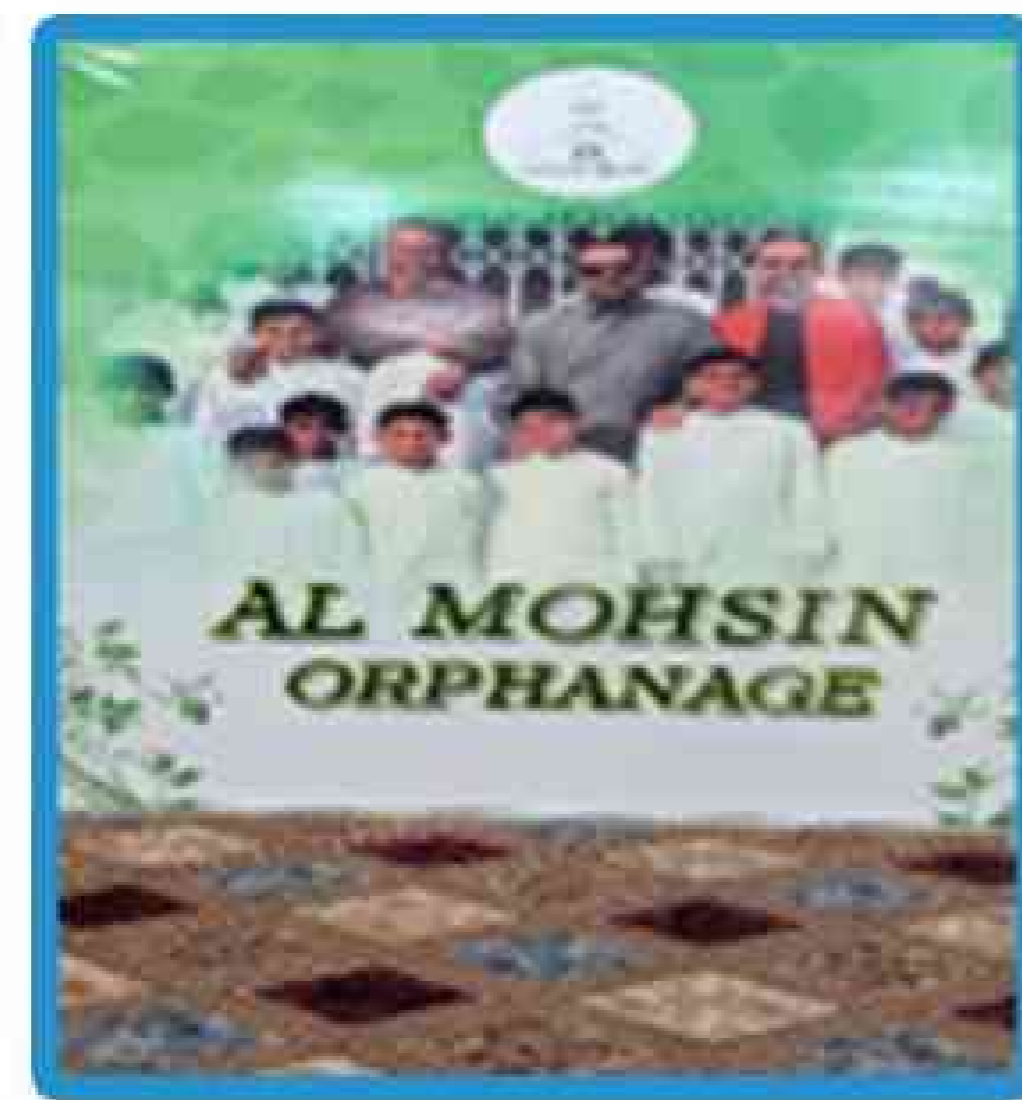

STEP 3: BOARD EXAM CLEARANCE

SECURING THE ENTRY:
The final administrative and academic phase of securing clearance from teachers to receive admit cards and officially enter the examination cycle.

CULTIVATING EMPATHY THROUGH COMMUNITY ACTION

IMPACT MATRIX

ACTIVE ENGAGEMENT
Spending meaningful time connecting and interacting with the children.

NUTRITIONAL SUPPORT
Assembly and distribution of food boxes and special goody bags.

ESSENTIAL PROVISIONS
Organised donation and distribution of clothing and daily essential items.

The visit to Al Mohsin Orphanage served as a powerful, hands-on reminder of compassion and the essential civic duty of giving back to society.
